Just a fabulous place
to eat some quality
German food, the

Austrian Village has everything you need to feel like you're back in the Fatherland. A great menu full of everything you would expect: veal, schnitzel, rouladen, knackwurst, bratwurst, spaetzle, German potato salad, red cabbage, sauerkraut. An EatingTeam favorite at the Village is the pork knuckle, delicious.

A rare sight, the Village empty.
The EatingTeam were the first customers of the day, we were excited to eat.

Oh, the Austrian Village also makes a great bowl of snapper soup.

The Tiroler sandwich, bratwurst covered in cheese and bacon, with a side of German potato salad.

The Schwabe sandwich, bratwurst with crispy fried onions smothered in brown gravy (this was awesome by the way), with a side of German potato salad.
