Bucks County, PA

With several locations and many more to come, we really like a couple things at Big Heads. The wings are really good, as well as the blackened chicken strips. Both are great for starters or meals.

These are some of the wings. Of course they have hot and mild and the usual flavors, but what we liked best was the “pub” wings where they mix the blue cheese with the hot sauce and then put it on the wings.

The blackened chicken strips are awesome, moist, tender, simple and tasty.
