Chickie's & Pete's

Several locations

Southeastern, PA

Chickie's and Pete's have swept the Philadelphia area over the past few years with their now infamous "crab fries". These are so good they are served at all the major ball parks in Philly and even casino's. They do though have a full pub and menu at several locations around town – check out some of their other fare.

You gotta start with a basket of their famous fries. These though are a combination of regular crab fries and also sweet potato crab fries. 2 different dipping options with this guy as well. Great twist on an old classic.

Next up, the overshadowed but equally as good mussels...When done, ask for bread to sop up the leftover "sauce".

Seafood chowder – just as good as it looks.

Along the theme of crab fries here were two things I tried on this trip as well. Spotted something on the menu called a “Magooby”. Don’t ya have to try that?

Shrimp salad, pickles, cheese, onions and crab fries. Not a bad little cold sandwich.

To end on this trip I went with the “crab fries bisque” – potato soup with some crab fries in it.
