Chickie's & Pete's, now with many locations, are known for seafood and their Crabfries. The Crabfries are absolutely something special to try. They have other well bar food at their locations but the Crabfries with cheese are flat out awesome.

Smothered in Chickie's own version of "Old Bay" seasoning, you will need to get a drink with these fries, as the sodium content is about four days worth. But holy cow, are these things fantastic.

And you get to dip them in melted American cheese.
