The Fireside, as it is known, has been around for many years serving the local neighborhood great food. The famous burger is the thing to get here, BUT we have to tell you, the menu is filled with can't miss items. The roast beef, clams casino, wings and numerous other fantastic things can be found here.

The Fireside is what we are all about. If you ever wondered where the great food is in a local town – the kind you would never hear of unless you are from the area, this is it. Hidden gem or whatever you want to call it. This is a great example of blue-collar food proudly presented and fantastically made. If we had a list for bar food, this place would be in the top of that list.

First up – wings. These were very tasty and honestly I would have enjoyed these with or without sauce.

Next up – clams casino. Good taste with not one ingredient overpowering the other.

Anyone in the area knows Dan Madrigale's Meats are some of Bucks County's best. So of course, this is what the Fireside chooses to use for their goodies. A simple formula - great meats make great sandwiches.

Here's what we came here for, the burger! Look at the thickness of this guy, juicy, full of flavor and just wonderful.

While there,
EatingTeam friend
Karen McKinley showed up and ordered this guy and “let” us taste it. Roast Beef Italian with sharp
provolone and greens.
Great sandwiches!
