Another GREAT place opened by the Merlino family. Not to be outdone by their first deli, the Village Pantry in Feasterville-Treves, PA, the Merlino's opened this gem – Goomba's. Bringing a taste of South Philly to the Quakertown and surrounding area this place is quickly becoming one of our can't miss places for a hoagie and shooters and hot peppers...Here is the recipe-just the right amount of great meats on fantastic Sarcone hard seeded rolls. It really is that simple. Our friend-in-food Bill Brennan has been their fan since they opened and has brought hoagie tray after hoagie tray to any and all events he could, spreading the gospel of Goomba's. To Bill and the Merlino's, we thank you for truly "Bringing South Philly to Da Burbs"

This hoagie tray didn't stand a chance!!

We took a ride out to Goomba's for some great sandwiches. We started with the Bang Bang fries. These are hot, spicy hot. Fries covered in hot pepper and garlic spices served with ranch dressing. If you like hot, these fries are for you.

Here's "Da Combolino", roast turkey, roast beef,
aged provolone with a
pesto mayonnaise.
Man, this hoagie was FANTASTIC!!

Top quality meat, a great
hard-seeded roll,
tasty provolone
and the pesto mayonnaise was a perfect compliment.

Here's the "Ole Italiano", prosciutto diparma, sopprasotta, Genoa salami, cappacolla & aged provolone. Another home run.

We also destroyed a “Chicken Cutlet alla Rabe”, homemade cutlets, broccoli rabe and aged provolone. Goomba’s does everything perfectly.

Great job Goomba’s!! Thanks, from the EatingTeam.
