Famous for their cakes, this is an old style bakery that has been around since 1929. That says to us that the thing to get should be the cannoli. Our guides for the day recommended it and they could not have been more spot on.

This is what a cannoli is supposed to taste like. The filling was so creamy with a deep rich flavor all the way through the pastry. Each bite was exactly the same from beginning to end. If you are in the area you HAVE to try one of these. One of the best we have ever had.
