Rustica is widely known for their specialty pizzas cooked in their gas fired brick oven. Simple crisp crust with great tasting toppings, this place is quickly gaining a reputation as one of the best pizzas in the city.

On today's Rustica trip, we tried four different slices. All were fantastic, as I've come to expect from this place that I consider the best in the city. I also picked up a large half pepperoni half sausage to go. The pepperoni here is particularly spicy and wonderfully tasty. They also have what they call the Old Smokey, which has pancetta and smoked mozzarella. I mention this because to my great regret, they were pulling one out of the oven as I was leaving with my belly quite full and already having a full pie to take home. I've had the Old Smokey before and it may have been one of the best pizzas I have ever had.
