Schubert's is famous for

Moravian Sugar Cake, pictured below. It tastes a lot like French toast but better. While there though, Kim's parents picked us up some sticky buns and tomato pie. WOW, is this tomato pie fantastic!! Absolutely one of the best we have had. Schubert's is a legendary place in the Northampton County area since 1973.

First up - Moravian Sugar Cake. Light, sugary and fluffy as you can see. Tough to describe as it is really not like anything I have had. The closest thing I can relate it to is sugary French toast. This stuff is good.

Next up - tomato pie. Thick and great tasting sauce, this was my favorite thing from this place out of everything. But I am a sucker for great Tomato Pie.

Finally, not to be overlooked, sticky buns. Heavily glazed and sticky as they should be.
