Shane Candies

110 Market Street

Philadelphia, Pa

Shane Candies is the oldest candy store in America

(founded in 1876). You don't have any business that long without knowing what you are doing. Usually the formula is the simplest – no gimmicks and only make good, quality products. Shane Candies is famous for hand making their candies still to this day using NO PRESERVATIVES. This is a step back in time where craftsman made products – not machines. While there your candy senses are on overload. It is a small narrow store like you would picture from such a historic place. With so much to choose from we got a variety of things on this trip.

Butter creams,
Cherry Bark,
chocolate
covered
marshmallows,
and some other goodies.

This is what we like about hand-made stuff, different sizes and such, but made from the same batch so they all taste
the same.
