

BALTIMORE, MARYLAND

THE EATINGTEAM TRAVELED TO BALTIMORE, MARYLAND IN SEARCH OF THE LEXINGTON MARKET, JUMBO LUMP CRABCAKES, "PIT BEEF" AND THESE THINGS CALLED "CODDIES"

Eatingteam members in attendance

Deb Knicos
Tony Rudy
Kim Rudy

Tour guide for the day Howard Weinberg

LEXINGTON MARKET

MARY MERVIS DELI –

SHRIMP SALAD SANDWICH – the first place we saw when we entered the market was the smiling faces at this deli. We opened the day with a great Shrimp Salad Sandwich. Packed with shrimp this was very good.

CORNED BEEF – While there the people behind the counter offered us some of there fresh corned beef for tasting. This melted in your mouth and was a nice surprise.

UTZ'S OF HANOVER-

FRESH POTATO CHIPS – Fresh made chips are the best. These were handed to us in a bag and were good for munching our way down the aisle to our next stop.

FAIDLEY SEAFOOD-

JUMBO LUMP CRABCAKES – Faidley's is served cafeteria style and cooked right in front of you in the open. This was located in the back of the market towards the center. We found these to be ok but very rich.

BERGER'S COOKIES-

CHOCOLATE COOKIES – These are magic. If you like about an inch of soft fresh chocolate on top of your cookie then you have found the right place. These are absolutely some of the best cookies we at The Eatingteam have ever had. These were worth the trip alone.

RAINBOW CAKE – Some say it is a native cake to this area. Nothing more than a mutli colored layer cake. Saw it- had to try it.

POLOCK JOHNNY'S-

SAUSAGE SANDWICH WITH THE WORKS- Everyone knows living in the Philadelphia area

we love sausage sandwiches. When we saw a sign for Pollock Johnny's we had to give it a shot. Not bad – decent sauce -very good service.

PARK'S FRIED CHICKEN-

WESTERN FRIES- these are fried potato wedges with a nice crispy texture and great taste. Little old bay does not hurt either.

MAC N CHEESE- Had to get this. We love mac N cheese. This again had old bay in it and was a good dish to munch on our way to the next eating spot.

ATTMAN'S DELI

CODDIES (COD CAKES WITH MUSTARD ON A CRACKER)- these are a definitely native thing to this area of Baltimore. Cold Cod cakes. These we found to be OK but not as good as Weiss's

CORNED BEEF SANDWICHES – Good rye bread very soft and great corned beef. Big line at the counter for a reason – this id the thing to get here.

WEISS DELI

CODDIES (COD CAKES WITH MUSTARD ON A CRACKER) – Now we see what people are talking about when they rave over these things. These we very good with great flavor and the best we had all day.

G & M RESTAURANT

JUMBO LUMP CRABCAKE – This is selected as a best of. This crabcake was absolutely nothing but great jumbo lump crabmeat. The only other part to this was what they used to bind it together which was a great, great flavor as well.

CHEESECAKE – While there someone recommended the cheesecake so what the hell? It was a good heavy cheesecake with good rich flavor. I would recommend getting it.

CORNER STABLE RESTAURANT

JUMBO LUMP CRABCAKE – Not bad but not great. It was full of crabmeat but after going to G & M it was going to be tough for anyone to top that.

RIBS- While there the ribs were recommended to us so, Deb and I being certified BBQ judges had to sample it. A good sweet sauce and not bad overall.

ANDY NELSON'S BBQ

PIT BEEF – This is what made our trip a great trip not just a good trip. Pit beef and BBQ beef are something this place does very well. Great sauce, great sweet tea, great BBQ. The Eatingteam would travel back down for just this.

PULLED PORK – Full of flavor and juicy. With the sauces on the table you can make it your way. We really liked the mustard sauce they had.

CHAP'S

PIT BEEF – The best Pit Beef The Eatingteam has had. This rivals with some of the best sandwiches we have ever had in Philly, New York or anywhere. Had mine with onion and sauce

GRAVY FRIES – How can these ever be bad?

MAC N CHEESE – This was OK but everything was so overshadowed by the Pit Beef sandwich

GONNA
FINISH
THAT?
Eatingteam.net

GONNA
FINISH
THAT?
Eatingteam.net