HOME OF THE DISTINGUISHED BECA GOLDEN HAWKS

Pete's Hot Dog King

400 Broadway at Carlton

Bethlehem, PA 18017

610.866.6622

Pete's is right on the corner - you can't miss it. Great dog! We got it with everything. The sign says they have been around for a long time and we have no doubts it will stay that way. Right across the street is another small hot dog place that we tried as well. Not bad but nothing to write home about.

Pott's Doggie Shop

114 W. Fairview

Bethlehem, PA 18017

610.865.6644

Pott's is right by Moravian College. When ordering, look up and to the left of the counter and you will understand what this place is all about. Simple, good hot dogs the way they were meant to be eaten. You are in the heart of Musikfest land and where the World Celtic Games are held.

Johnny's Drive In

2722 Easton Ave

Bethlehem, PA 18017

610.865.9999

This is a gyro place that does a decent hot dog. The best thing about this chili cheese dog is the chili, great taste.

Richard's Drive In

2700 Freemansburg Ave

Palmer, PA

610.258.3082

This bright PINK building is a local legend. It is known by a different name by locals (Greasy Dick's), but all the same, it is a good hot dog.
